

Summer Internship Opportunities

Work with Alliance Theatre, High Museum, & Atlanta Symphony Orchestra staff to help in the preparation and running of our 5th annual Educator Conference.

- Time commitment: Some positions available for the two weeks prior and one week following the conference – flexible hours, minimum of 20 hours per week; Conference June 4 -5, 7a-3:30p
- Things you will learn: Arts administration, project coordination, event/conference management, dependent on interest – you will be able to attend conference sessions
- Things we are looking for: Interest and some experience in education/arts integration, some administrative experience

Spring Break and Summer Camp
Spring Break: April 6th – 10th
Summer: May 26th – August 7th

Work in the classroom with Alliance Theatre Teaching Artists to assist in classroom tasks and putting on a new play every week of camp!

- Time commitment: 42 hours per week for 5 weeks (Sessions May 26-July 3 or July 6 –Aug 7)
- Things you will learn: classroom management, stage management, directorial techniques, acting techniques, theatre games, conflict resolution
- Things we are looking for: some experience in theatre (can be school, on stage or off), experience with children (babysitting, previous camp experience, mentorship, etc.)

Alliance Theatre Play Days

September 23 – 27, October 14, November 25-27, December 23, 27 & 30, January 2 & 3 education

Volunteer as a teaching assistant for a one-day theater experience for students Kindergarten through 5th grade. Work alongside Alliance's professional Teaching Artists as students explore elements of theater with a variety of daily themes.

- Time commitment: daily sessions, 8am – 4:30pm
- Things you will learn: classroom management, stage management, directorial techniques, acting techniques, theatre games, conflict resolution
- Things we are looking for: some experience in theatre (can be school, on stage or off), experience with children (babysitting, previous camp experience, mentorship, etc.)

Weekend Family Days Sundays in June and July

Our family day events are part of a collaborative program working with the Alliance Theatre, Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, and the High Museum of Art providing innovative, exciting, and free family programming featuring core artistic work.

- Time commitment: 1-2 days/week, up to 6 hours/day
- Things you will learn: Event coordinating, creative problem solving, customer service, classroom management, stage management, directorial techniques, acting techniques, theatre games, conflict resolution
- Things we are looking for: friendly attitude, problem solving, some experience with families is preferred. some experience in theatre (can be school, on stage or off), experience with children (babysitting, previous camp experience, mentorship, etc.)

Toddler Takeover March 27-29

Toddler Takeover: An Arts Festival for the Very Young features performances, arts workshops, making activities and more for an audience of children 0-5 years.

- Time commitment: March 27 – 29, 8am – 4pm; some availability the week prior
- Things you will learn: Arts administration, project coordination, event/conference management
- Things we are looking for: Interest and some experience in theatre for youth, some administrative experience, proactive and positive attitude; some customer service experience.

To apply, please visit:

www.alliancetheatre.org/internships

Email Aierelle.Jacob@alliancetheatre.org for more information.